IFPSD congratulates Michelle Bachelet on her appointment as the new Human Rights Chief of the UN

August 20, 2018
New York, NY

Sally Kader, President of the International Federation for Peace and Sustainable Development (IFPSD), and Ralph Kader, UN diplomat and CEO of IFPSD, formally congratulate Michelle Bachelet of her new role as the Human Rights Chief of the United Nations.

IFPSD President Sally Kader has known Michelle Bachelet personally through the former’s role as head of UN Women. They have worked alongside each other at the Conference on the Status of Women, and the Conference of Women in Conflict workshop.

“I have seen her dedication firsthand”, said IFPSD President Sally Kader. “She is hardworking and aggressive in preserving human rights. I heartily congratulate her and wish her success.”

Michelle Bachelet was a victim of human rights violation during Chile’s right wing dictatorship. She has since served as the first woman President of Chile, and the first head of UN Women in 2010.

IFPSD works to support the protection of human rights and endeavors towards achieving this goal through educational programs, regular high-level dialogue and community outreach initiatives. In addition, the organization works on its other pillars of Protection of Cultural Heritage, Peace and Interfaith Dialogue, Women and Girl Empowerment and Youth Leadership.

IFPSD is in consultative status with the United Nations Economic and Social Council (UN-ECOSOC). Accredited with the UN Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD), it is associated with UN Department of Public information (UN-DPI) and the UN Department of Political Affairs (UNDPA).
