of a true hero who made great contribution to peace and reconciliation, promotion and protection of human rights, the fight against poverty and the advancement of social justice.

IFPSD continues to recognize Nelson Mandela's values and his dedication to the service of humanity, as a humanitarian, in the fields of conflict resolution, race relations, reconciliation, gender equality and the rights of children and other vulnerable groups.

Everyone has the ability and the responsibility to change the world for the better, and Mandela Day is an occasion for everyone to take action and inspire change.

On this Special Day President Mrs. Sally Kader emphasizes how important to promote Women Empowerment, Youth Empowerment, Sustainable Development, and Human Rights that are in conformity with the ideas and legacies of Nelson Mandela.
